Youth Theatre Workshop

Young Adults can participate in a six week workshop to learn all aspects of theatre; from production needs to staging, props, costumes and stage direction. Participation will help students determine whether they prefer to be on stage or off. Participation could lead to a part in The Princess Who had No Name or Every Baby-sitter's Nightmare

Register through Stow Parks & Recreation in the office or online at StowOhio.RecDesk.com

THE PRINCESS WHO HAD NO NAME

By Brian D. Taylor
Directed by LeAnn Covey

Auditions October 3 (6-8pm)
Oregon Trail Facility

This Fairytale character filled play weaves classic and fractured fairy tale farce with mystery, when a girl wakes up in the forest with no memory of the past. Fun for the whole family.

Performance Dates
